Teaching Pedagogy

We use a range of teaching and learning methodologies which are drawn from the constructive and blended learning approaches. Our teaching pedagogy has three key features: Exploration, collaboration and application of knowledge. The first key feature of our teaching pedagogy is the idea of critical thinking which leads the learner to exploration, secondly we emphasize on collaboration which puts emphasis on the fact that students learn better when they are actively engaged, the third key feature is the application of knowledge and skills learned.
